"Two gentlemen of high birth, the one a Spaniard, the other a German, having rendered Maximillian II. many services, they each, for recompense, demanded his natural daughter, Helena Schasequin, in marriage. The prince who entertained equal respect for them both, could not give either the preference, and after much delay he told them that from the claims they both had to his attention and regard, he could not give his assent for either to marry his daughter, and they must decide it by their own prowess and address; but as he did not wish to risk the loss of either, or both, by suffering them to fight with offensive weapons, he had ordered a large bag to be brought, and he who was successful enough to put his rival into it, should obtain his daughter. This strange com-bat, between two gentlemen, was in the presence of the whole Imperial Court, and lasted half an hour. At length the Spaniard vielded to the German, Ande Elhard, Baron of Tetherd, who, when he got him into the bag, took him on his back and placed him at the Emperor's feet, and on the following day married the beautiful Helena."

CHOLERA.

A sure Remedy—a Preventive—a Cure! THE following letter is from Mr. Woodward, of St. Louis, to J. N. Harris, esq., New London, Conn., General Wholesale Agent for our PAIN KILLER.
Mr. Woodward is a resident of St. Louis, a gentleman of high respectability, and during the prevalence of the choicer in that city has watched the result of the application of our Pain Killer for this disease, and his testimony can be relied on with the utmost confidence.

PERRY DAVIS & SONS.

can be relied on with the utmost confidence.

J. N. Harris, esq.—Dear Sir: You will recollect when I saw you in New London, in January last, my expressing to you my most sanguine expectations that Davis's Pain Killis would have a tremendous sale in the West this season, and my anticipations have been more than realized, and the testimony of thousands who have used it has been, that they would not be willing to go to bed at night without it in the house.

On the appearance of the cholera in this city, such was the confidence in the Pain Killer as a remedy, that many who purchased it remarked to me that they had no fears or dread of the cholera as long as they had the Pain Killer by them, and hundreds took it daily as a preventive, for no person can have a derangement of the bowels or diarrhoral flee y use this medicine daily. This was the security and confidence of hundreds acquainted with it, and when their friends were attacked with the cholera, they would administer this remedy in large quantities internally, and also externally, by bathing and rubbing them with it; and in every case where it has been taken in any of the first stages of this disease it has proved successful. I consider it an infallible remedy. I have not heard of an individual in any family who used the Pain Killer when attacked, but speedily recovered.

Captain Broadwell, of the steamer Atlantic, a New Orleans packet, informed me that, on one of his trips up the river to this city, there were upward of seventy cases of cholera on board, and the Pain Killer was used with complete and triumphant success.

The Clerk informed me that he had administered it to cholera on board, and the Pain Killer was used with com-plete and triumphant success.

The Clerk informed me that he had administered it to persons when cold and in the cramps, and it gave imme-diate relief; but still it should be given quickly, for when the discharge of "rice water" has begun, the hope of life has fled. Should this disease make its appearance among you, as in all probability it will, be not alarmed; you and all others there have the remedy, and I am confident if the Pain Killer is used, not a death by cholera will occur in some often.

the Pain Riller is used, not a death by choices will occur in your city.

If the cholera comes among you watch its progress and the remedy use, and, mark my words, the family who ases the Pain Killer daily will have no diarrhees, no disarrangement of the bowels, and consequently no cholera.
If those who are attacked will use the Pain Killer early and thoroughly, they will be saved. This has been the experience of hundreds in this city during the ravages of this dreadful disease. I have not been able to supply one fourth of the demand. I have received orders from persons begging me mand. I have received orders from persons begging me to send them some.

Now, for your own sake, for my sake, and for the sake of suffering thousands, make some arrangements that your agents can be supplied. Increase your manufacture, do something that a suffering world may be relieved from pain, for the time will come when not a family on this continent will be willing to do without it a single day. Respectfully yours,

A. T. WOODWARD.

LEVERETT'S LATIN LEXICON, ELEVERETT'S LATIN LEGATED'S

RNLARGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from and Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Lue words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Ciceronian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present addition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than its predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scarz—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even the knesding troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investiga-tion of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility of traders in the U. States. Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long es-tablished offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.

are unequalled.

We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.

Having full lists and reports of nearly all the Attorneys in the United States, we are at all times prepared to furnish you, gratuitously, the names of good and responsible lawyers in any part of the United States and Canadas.

Connected with our Agency is a Commissioner for nearly all the States, who is enabled to afford every facility and legal form for preparing accounts, &c., for immediate use, thereby avoiding a delay often fatal to the collection of a debt.
